

Rutgers Geology Museum

54th (Virtual) Open House

*This year is the Geology Museum's 150th Anniversary!
Join us for a full-day celebration of this momentous occasion!*

Guest Lectures

10:00 to 11:00 AM EST	“Curating a Culture of Curiosity: Strategies for Managing a Natural History Collection in the Deep South” Presented by Amy Moe-Hoffman Curator at the Dunn-Seiler Museum
11:30 AM to 12:30 PM EST	“19th Century Geology and the Creation of America’s First Geology Museum” Presented by Dr. Lauren Neitzke Adamo Director, Rutgers Geology Museum
1:00 to 2:00 PM EST	“Why Mary Anning Rocks” Presented by Anya Pearson Trustee, Mary Anning Rocks Project
2:30 to 3:30 PM EST	“A Scientific and Architectural History of the Geology Museum” Presented by Dr. Carla Yanni & Carol McCarty Professor of Art History at Rutgers & Researcher in the Rutgers History Dept.

Lectures will be hosted on Zoom & live-streamed to Facebook

Mineral Sale

This year’s mineral sale will be held via a Facebook Auction.
facebook.com/rutgersgeologymuseum

Payments will be taken online. NJ sales tax (6.625%) will be applied to all purchases.

Children’s Activities

Children’s activities will be held on Zoom at 10:30 AM and 11:30AM EST.

Activity	Supplies
10:30 - 11:30AM Paper Plate Spider Crabs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A paper/styrofoam bowl or plate • Construction paper or pipe cleaners • Paint or markers • Scissors • Glue/Scotch tape
11:30AM - 12:30PM Mummy Madness!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Printed copy of the template on our website (or construction paper) • White tissue paper or toilet paper • Scissors • Glue/Scotch tape

Visit our website (<https://go.rutgers.edu/rugmopenhouse>) for more information and event links.

Phone: 848-932-7243

Email: geologymuseum@sas.rutgers.edu

Website: geologymuseum.rutgers.edu